WEATHER OBSERVATIONS:

The southwestern storm which is central over southeastern Idaho and another decided barometric depression which has appeared over Alberta have caused a rise in temperature in the Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys, though the thermometers still register below zero in Montana, North Dakota and northern Minnesota. Rain or snow has again fallen in California and most of the Rocky mountain region and on the west coast. High pressures and generally fair weather prevail from the Mississippi valley to the Atlantic coast, with the crest of the high over Kentucky, though snow has occurred in the St. Lawrence valley and the eastern portion of the lake region. The approach of the western storm will be attended by snow or rain and warmer weather in this vicinity tonight and Thursday.

YANKS AND BRAVES

MAY CHANGE CAMPS

Boston, Jan. 19.—An exchange of spring training camps is the subject of negotiations between the New York Americans and the Boston Nationals.

Manager George F. Stallings of the Braves said yesterday that he wished to have the local team train at Macon, Ga., instead of Miami, Fla., where it has leased grounds for five years.

Accordingly, he said, he had asked Captain Huston of the New York club, which leased the privileges at Macon after Boston abandoned that place last spring, to enter an arrangement whereby the clubs would exchange camps, or to allow both to train at Macon. In the latter event, he said, the Miami plant would be offered to another team.
